

Sibelius Educational Edition Qualifications

The Sibelius Educational Editions are intended solely for the use of qualified students, educators, educational institutions, and church and music ministry personnel residing in North/Central/South America. Purchase by, or transfer to others is strictly prohibited.

Status	Qualifications
College or University	Fully accredited, non-profit, w/music degree program
K-12	Fully accredited, non-profit
Student	College and University full-time student in a degree program, or K-12
Music Educator	Currently teaching at a college, university or K-12
Private Music Teacher, Home School	Current member of MTNA, NATS, NFMC, MENC, or a MENC allied association (listed below)
Church, Synagogue, Music Minister, or Music Representative	Non-profit with a separate house of worship or currently employed by a church or other religious institution in their music department

Qualified Organizations:

America Sings!, American Choral Directors Assn., American Composer Forum, American Guild of English Handbell Ringers, American Guild of Organists, American Orff Schulwerk Association, American String Teachers Assn., Barbershop Harmony Society, Chamber Music America, College Band Directors Assn., Early Music America, International Assn. Of Jazz Educators, Kappa Kappa PSI, National Assn. of College Wind & Percussion Instructors, National Assn. of Pastoral Musicians, National Band Assn., National Black Music Caucus, National Guild of Community Schools of the Arts, National School Orchestra Assn., National Assn. For the Study and Performance of African American Music, Percussive Arts Society, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, PNWFSP, Sigma Alpha IOTA, Tau Beta Sigma

In Canada: Canadian Band Assn., Canadian Music Educators Assn. or their respective Provincial organizations.

If you think your organization qualifies, please contact infousa@sibelius.com or 888.4.SIBELIUS (888.474.2354).

Contact us

Sibelius Sales

Tel: 888.4.SIBELIUS (888.474.2354)

Fax: 925.280.0008

Email: infousa@sibelius.com

